Shaw Trial Jury Watches Rex Parade from Residence Balcony

—Photo by Jack Thornell of The Associated Press.

VIEWING the Rex Parade Tuesday are members of the Clay Shaw trial jury. They watched the parade from the balcony of a residence on St. Charles ave. near Seventh st. Judge Edward A. Haggerty Jr. declared a holiday for Mardi Gras and the jurors were invited to watch Mardi Gras activities in a group. Lending a Carnival touch in the foreground are Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Simoneaux, who are trying to catch trinkets from a float.